

2017 CORAL MCLEAN AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

Award criteria are as follows:

- Nominees must demonstrate an outstanding achievement or be part of a project that enhances the lives of women in the Chifley electorate or other residents
- Nominees must demonstrate leadership in advocating or enhancing the lives of women in the Chifley electorate or other residents
- Preference is given to residents of the Chifley electorate
- The winners must be present at the presentation to receive the award

The above criterion applies to all categories. The Coral McLean Award is a special category presented to a nominee who displays outstanding service to the community. To qualify for the Young Chifley Woman of the Year award, nominees must be aged 16-26 years old. Nominees are not eligible for resubmission for a period of three years. The official nomination form must be completed in full. Nominating submissions may also include documentary evidence, e.g. further references or testimonials.

When answering the questions, it is important to note the following:

- Give supporting information where possible when addressing each criterion
- All claims, details, and nominations forms are subject to authentication by the judging panel
