Subject: FAO Party General Secretary + Head of Complaints - Fifth Columnists at HQ

Dear Ms Formby and Ms Goodyear,

I write to complain about the 50 questions that were put to Pete Gregson on the 24th July by the Disputes Team, which can be read with his answers at www.tinyurl.com/disputeresponse. The Disputes Team seek confidentiality, but the Legal and Governance Unit, of which they form part, breaches confidentiality whenever it suits. Pete's suspension from the Party was broadcast to the Jewish News a week before he knew of it.

There are big problems with the Disputes Team; the Panorama programme that slated Labour about bogus anti-Semitism did not reveal the most important problem - that we are still riddled with fifth-columnists at HQ.

These people, clearly from the JLM, do not favour a Labour Government under Corbyn and are doing their best to expel leftie Labour activists like Pete. They support apartheid in Israel; they have not a care about how much their questioning reflects a bias; not once do they acknowledge Israel's racist nature. By siding with that racist colony so enthusiastically, they betray the most appalling Islamophobia.

Let's see the back of them.

Yours sincerely,

[your name and- if you have one- Party number] dy stolen from Palestine. They will never accommodate the Arabs and give them equality, for by definition their state must be Jewish. That means, to them, that Jews always must rule and all other ethnoreligious groups must lose out. Corbyn's position is therefore contradictory. He cannot support Zionists in Labour, for that means supporting racism and the ubiquitous Islamophobia they peddle.

I hope the complaints team will investigate how many of the Disputes Team are in the JLM and reflect upon the pro-Zionist nature of that body. I hope they see we must replace these racists with non-racists for without such a rational action we shall face many more attacks from within. Our Labour Party can no longer tolerate this bogus anti-Semitism, for it risks promoting real antagonism against Jews.

For every time one challenges a Zionist, they retort that they are a Jew. But that is an insult to decent Jews. As Rabbi Cohen says in Pete's statement to the Disputes Team: "Judaism is an ancient, ethical, moral, compassionate and religious way of life. Going back, as stated earlier, thousands of years. Whereas Zionism (the movement and concept that begat the State of Israel) is a nationalistic, harsh, inconsiderate, secular and racist way of life, barely 120 years old, a totally new concept. It is totally incompatible with and diametrically unacceptable to Judaism on grounds of religious belief and religious humanitarian grounds."

So there you have it. These Zionists are incompatible with Judaism. Let's see the back of them.

Yours sincerely,

[your name and- if you have one- your Party membership number]
